

I support this petition. It would correct a loophole in the vanity call sign system which is allowing people with more financial resources to have an unfair advantage in obtaining highly desired vanity call signs. This is against the spirit of amateur radio in which all operators are considered equal. Young amateurs and those of limited financial means should have an equal chance of obtaining a particular vanity call sign as all other amateur operators.

Thank you for your consideration.

Terry W. Rockhold K200